8th St. Center for Peace

Parcel # RPB72410540160A

Present - Steve Peterson, Attorney for Appellant, Kathy Ruitz, founder of 8th St. Center for Peace, Gerald Bowdin, Assessor and Jennifer Bergin Prosecutor

Commissioner Kramer swore in all parties Kathy Ruitz, founder of 8th St. and Gerald Bowdin, Assessor.

Attorney Steve Peterson presented the case for the Appellant, 8th St. Center for Peace. Kathy Ruitz reviewed the founding and use of the facility.

Gerald Bowdin, Assessor asked Kathy what the activities have been over the last two weeks. Ms. Ruitz reviewed the use.

Jennifer Bergin questioned if there were religious services or activities. Ms. Ruitz noted there were no scheduled services, she described the use.

Gerald Bowdin, Assessor reviewed the process used to determine his position that the property did not qualify for a church exemption. Mr. Bowdin recommended the Board of Equalization deny the application as the use appears to be more community related and catering with minimal religious use.

Mr. Peterson asked if Mr. Bowdin reviewed a percentage use as the code allows. Mr. Bowdin discussed the need for more information.

Commissioner Urie questioned the catering use. Ms. Ruitz explained the use. Commissioner Mills asked about the ownership of the building. Ms. Ruitz explained the ownership was listed as a non-profit corporation. Commissioner Mills asked about the expenses of the facility and how they are funded. Ms. Ruitz discussed the finances of the facility.

Mr. Peterson noted that the Assessor should have determined the mixed use as required by law. Mr. Peterson requested the board set a percentage and go back to the previous tax years. Mr. Peterson proposed 90% exempt and 10% non-exempt.

Jennifer Bergin addressed the use and designation of religious purposes and noted that the property does not meet the purposes as qualifying as per code.
