Commissioner Kramer recused himself from the discussion and decision due to an inability to be objective to the request.

Commissioner Johnson reviewed the request from Valley House.

Commissioner Johnson made a MOTION to approve the property tax cancellation request from Valley House. Commissioner Hall SECONDED. Discussion Commissioner Johnson we have reviewed this very carefully and requested input from our legal department. There does not appear to be any way for us to accommodate this request. Commissioner Hall reviewed the circumstances that led to the request for cancellation. Valley House provides a very important service to our community and saves tax dollars because the people they help may end up within the county system. However, we must follow the law which says we cannot accommodate this request. Commissioner Johnson this is a new piece of property not the original housing area and this new property has now applied for a property tax exemption. Motion Failed Unanimously. (Hall yes, Johnson yes) Kramer abstained.
